OMDURMAN'S STRONG FINISH.

The threatening, rainy weather that prevailed about noon yesterday had no apparent effect upon the attendance at Lakeside, the usual large crowd being on hand. Just enough moisture fell to partly settle the dust and, if anything, made the track faster than ever. The betting was as brisk as on the preceding days and the racing well within the pale of consistent form.

The principal feature of the day, a handicap at one mile for three-year-olds and upward, was robbed of its interest by wholesale scratching, as but three of the eight originally carded to start faced the barrier. Haviland was always held at 1 to 2 in the betting, but had to succumb to Hermencia, which, favored by his light impost of 95 pounds, won with consummate ease. Andes and Haviland ran almost as one horse after the first quarter had been reached, with Hermencia trailing along in the rear. Just before entering the last quarter Gormley brought up Hermencia with a rush and was on equal terms with the two leaders when nearing the last eighth post. Andes was first to tire and fall away beaten and then Haviland began to falter and it was an easy thing for Hermencia to move into the lead, winning in a canter by two and one-half lengths. Haviland beat Andes four and a half lengths for second place. The latter was well spent at the finish.

Omdurman came within an ace of having a close call of it in the third race, a dash of one mile for all ages. He was held at 11 to 10 in the betting and was the medium of a heavy plunge by talent and public alike. After Telamon led by a fair margin for the first quarter Lou Woods dashed into the van and held it clear up to the last eighth, where he tired and gradually fell away beaten. Here Miracle II., which had always laid second, took command and appeared all over the winner in the last sixteenth, but little Knapp was of no help to him and Omdurman, coming with a rush, beat him out by a head going away. Miracle II. beat W. J. Deboe a length for second place. Telamon ran well for seven furlongs and then quit badly. Lou Woods' race was a good one. He maintained his speed exceedingly well for seven furlongs. He is at his best and bears watching from low on. Henry of Trastamare's race was much better than it seems on paper. He was well up until well into the stretch and showed much improvement. He is ready to win when placed right.

The day's opener, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, resulted in a surprise party. Marcos, to which little chance had been given by the wise players, finishing first a head in front of Inspector Shea, which beat the fast closing Dandola a half length for second place. Marcos has always stopped heretofore after running a half mile but yesterday he moved up fast in the last eighth and stood a long hard drive with gameness to the wire. He was tiring rapidly at the end and had just enough left to stagger home in front. Inspector Shea was slightly outrun in the first part of the race but came on fast in the last sixteenth. Dandola was probably the best but was the recipient of a weak ride. Hope took him wide when swinging for home losing some ground. The horse finished strongly on his own courage. Crescent City was speedy for five furlongs. He will be a hard horse to beat in his class the first time mud prevails. Joe Brown and Puryear both showed early speed.

In the second race, a sprint of six furlongs, Harry Herendeen long overdue at last scored. He was in his form and dashing to the front at flag fall simply smothered his field with fleet-ness. He won well in hand by three lengths from The Boer, which beat Bummer one and a half lengths for second place. The Boer's sudden improvement was surprising. He finished fast and was easily the best of the others. Bummer, well thought of by the talent, ran a dull race. He ran well for a half mile and then began to prop. Maggie Davis would have beaten him for third place in a stride or two. If You Dare showed a good turn of speed for five furlongs. He had the worst of the weights, but showed up well at that. The Rush was supposed to be a good thing and was generously backed, but after showing a flash of speed for a short half mile went "up in the air" and finished back in the rack. He is far from the good sprinter he formerly was.

Guy H.'s victory in the fourth race was the form reversal of the meeting. The day before, after being backed heavily, he put up a dull race and was beaten off at the end. Yesterday in about the same kind of a field he simply cantered home and made his field look cheap. On both occasions he appeared stiff and lame when going to the post, but yesterday his supporters were few and far between. Nyx, closely attended by La Gorda, showed the way up to the final eighth, where Winkfield brought up Guy H. with a rush and swept past his field as if it was tied. He won in a canter by four lengths from Little Lois, which finished a half length in front of Fleetwing for second place. Big Injun came fast in the last eighth. Kohnwreath, supposed to be the best by the talent, was never a serious contender and ran far below expectations.

The finale went to Mary Moore which with Coburn in the saddle won in a big canter by three lengths from Zack Phelps, he beating the fast closing Azim a neck for second money. Azim made up much ground in the last half and was running past horses at the end. Hans, worst moved up fast in the last sixteenth. Amoroso and Eva's Darling ran well for seven furlongs.

NEXT WEEK'S LAKESIDE PROGRAM.

The program book for the remainder of the Roby meeting—after this week—shows that the Lakeside Jockey Club is fulfilling its announced intention to hang up $10,000 during its fifteen days of racing.

The purses in the new book, which Secretary Nathanson brought out yesterday afternoon, amount to $24,300, which brings the total disbursement of the meeting, apart from entry fees, up to $40,800. The purses for next week and the half week following range from $400 to $700. There are two of the latter figure, each being a handicap, at a mile and a furlong for three-year-olds and upward.

The daily card will consist of six races, except the last day of the meeting and season, on which seven will be run, and those who do not secure their getaway money by that time will be up against it.

The book contains fifty-five races, of which two are for $700, two for $600, and twelve for $500. Besides these there are nine races in which an entry fee of $10, $15 or $20 is one of the conditions which the secretary imposes probably with the hope of saving himself from being overwhelmed with entries.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Preparations have been made by the horse-men at the Fair Grounds to scatter to various meetings throughout the country, a special train of ten cars having been arranged to depart for the Louisville meeting tomorrow morning. Many of the owners will ship to that point, others will go to Washington, D. C., John Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Sadie.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving. Sadducee broke flatfooted, but assumed command without much effort and fairly cantered the remainder of the journey. He is fresh and in his best form. Alpaca was prominent throughout and is evidently very good. Federalist finished strongly. Rappenecker was crossed in the last sixteenth. St. David went well in the stretch. Bastille quit. Lady Sterling closed a gap and will show well in a capable jockey's hands. Bold Knight's probable bad showing was foreshadowed in the betting. He had worked a fast trial recently.

Scratched—28614 The Puritan, 119; (28988) Shoreham, 114; 29032 James J. Corbett, 108; 29032 Mark Lane, 105; 29032 Princess E., 105; 29032 Wanda, 105; 29032 Cherries, 105; 29008 Sweet Tooth, 105.

Winner—Br. c. by Conrad—Too Sweet.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Sweet Tooth and Lamp O'Lee got away running and the race was confined to them throughout. Bowen and Animosity essayed in vain to get up and were driving from the start. The former ran a game race and was probably best, but was disqualified for boring in. Animosity was somewhat interfered with through the stretch by Bowen, but not enough to have changed the result.

Scratched—29011 Alfred Vargrave, 116; 29033 Eleise Skip, 103.

Winner—Ch. f. by Goldfinch—Bavaria.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Josepha beat the gate, showed fine form and evidently likes this track. Bon Mot failed right at the end and after displaying a brilliant burst of speed to get up after a bad sendoff. Major Daingerfield was nearly left and closed a tremendous gap. Francesco ran in improved form. Namtor got off badly and had scant chance with a cowardly ride but finished fast. Glen Water was going strongly at the end.

Scratched—28914 Eddie Busch, 112; 28739 Katherine C., 108.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Ethics got off badly and ran the best race of his career. Lombre, off in front but outrun early, finished very strongly but was unable to concede such big weight. Roxane got a running start and seemed the winner for six furlongs but failed badly right at the end and was probably short. Lady Sterling was nearly left and appeared to have a chance when a furlong from the finish but the effort to get up exhausted her.

Announcement was made Wednesday that H. Fliten would train for J. S. Bratton at the Benning meeting. Frank Carr, the local bookmaker, has sold his gelding Chales to John McKee for a price said to be $1,000.

An interesting item is a record transcontinental trip for a racing man with a stable recently made. Green B. Morris, with sixteen horses, including the two-year-old Canard, the four-year-old Water Cure, the three-year-olds Janice and Antolight, started on a schedule of five and a half days on the road. The horses were in two express cars, each equipped with eight box stalls, padded and provided with clean straw. The cars were taken to Chicago by the fast Pennsylvania express No. 9, and switched to the Santa Fe express over the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad. This is the first time the officers of the Santa Fe road hitched horse cars to its flyer. Mr. Morris' stable will race at San Francisco, returning east next spring. He expects to get his share of the purses at Tanforan and Oakland.

The English jockey record up to October 11 was as follows:

Papinta, the danseuse, who a few years ago established a thoroughbred breeding farm near Concord, Contra Costa county, in this state, will send to the auction ring in this city during December, a consignment of handsome and well bred two-year-olds, all by El Rayo and out of select mares. Papinta, who is Mrs. Lorena V. Holpin in public life, has made a beautiful home of her stock farm, and greatly enjoys the time spent there among the horses and colts. The lady is an excellent whip and handles one, two or four horses as if to the manner born—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Frank Nelson and Ed Cole, whose horses, Miss Shanley, Tyrba, Rosebud, Maggie W. and Prince of Song, were badly injured in a wreck on the Pierre and Marquette Railroad while en route from Ft. Erie to the South, have arranged a settlement, getting $1,000. At first the company offered them only $100 for each horse. Nelson valued Maggie W. alone at $1,500. Tom Scott and John Grater, who also suffered in the accident, have not yet come to terms with the railroad.

Doctor F. W. Holtgrewe, the well known North St. Louis turfman, has turned his Club Members' winner, Hottentot out of training for this season. The crack son of St. Charles went lame in the shoulder last summer and has been on the shelf ever since. His owner did have hopes of getting a race or two out of him before the season closed, but he finally concluded not to hurry the horse.

The yearling chestnut colt by St. Florian, out of Eva R. the dam of Uledi, died at Latonia Saturday night as the result of a sudden attack of congestion of the lungs. He was the property of Hiram Pierce, who but a few days ago refused an offer of $1,200 for him. The colt was taken ill at 10 o'clock in the morning and died at 7 o'clock.

Jockey T. Burns has been re-engaged to ride for W. C. Whitney next year. The contract is not yet signed, but arrangements have been made and the papers will be ready in a day or so. Burns had more than one offer for next season, but he listened to none until he had interviewed Mr. Whitney.

Contrary to the general opinion a number of the horses at the Oakland track are very forward in their preparation. A two-year-old stepped five furlongs the other morning in a fraction of a second better than 1:01, while several of the older horses have shaded 1:41 for the mile.

Walter Jennings has seventeen horses in training at Sacramento aside from yearlings. The list includes Vesuvian, Andria, Dunblane, Canderos, Redwald, The Scot, Modder, El Bano, Milas, Prestano, Quiet, Lapidus, Minerva, Sister Jeanie, Jacqueminot and Evander.

The California Jockey Club is badly in need of more stabling accommodations at Oakland, despite the fact that new stalls are in course of construction. It is likely that Ingleside will be prepared so that owners can train their horses on that track.

10 to 20 to 1 Good Thing Second Race. Plunge the Limit on This.

This one has been saved to earn winter oats for his stable, and if its latest move, which was as good as ever shown over the Lakeside track, can be relied upon, he and his stable mates will have full stomachs all winter WHILE OUR PATRONS WILL HAVE FULL POCKETS. There are at least two other horses whose chances we are so confident that WE SHALL ADVISE A PLUNGE ON THEM. They probably will not be more than 3 to 1 but we feel confident they will win. DO YOU REALLY WANT TO WIN? Yes, you say. Well then, let us, men who have made a life long study of the sport of racing, men who daily are spending large sums of money for information, and WHO HAVE MADE OTHER MEN WEALTHY, advise you. Try us for a day or week—you will never regret it. SATURDAY 10 to 1 or better in special training for six weeks to win this particular race.

TERMS: $1.00 DAILY. $4.00 WEEKLY. READY AT 9 A. M.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Marcos ran a good race, held on longer than usual and finished strongly. Inspector Shea came with a rush at the end, but just a shade too late. Dandola was probably the best, but Hope was of no help to him, besides taking him wide at the stretch turn. The horse finished strongly on his own courage. Crescent City was speedy for five furlongs and then tired rapidly. Puryear showed early speed.

Scratched—28840 Prowl, 116.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

At Lakeside:

The latter was raced to a standstill in chasing the winner.

He saved ground by hugging the rail and hung on with more gameness than has been his wont. Beauchamp allowed Meditation to get out on the turn and put up a weak finish. Royal Athlete ran a good race. Taby Tosa made a bold bid at the head of the stretch, but weakened at the end. Rubus showed no great speed at any part of the race and can do much better.

 Winner--B. g. by St. Florian--Serene.
 Went to post at 2:45. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Peaceful ran to his best form and was never fully extended. Lady Strathmore was easily the best of the others. Huntressa, under indifferent handling, performed impressively. Ethylene can do much better. She by no means ran her true race. Marie Tryon showed early speed, but cannot go a long route in such company.
 Overweights--Huntressa, 4 pounds.
 Peaceful, show, out. Lady Strathmore, show, 2 to 5. Huntressa, show, 1 to 2. Ethylene, show, 2 to 5.

 Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Ed L. was off with a clear course and was best and well ridden. Jake Weber and Lasso had a bumping match that did neither of them any good and hurt the latter especially. She would have been a keen contender with even racing luck. Grantor finished with his usual determination under a weak ride. Verify seems to be of no present account.

 Winner--B. f. by Sir Dixon--Breeze.
 Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. South Breeze was outrun in the first part of the race, but saved ground in the stretch, caught Odenarde weakening in the last twenty yards and won drawing away. Odenarde did his best. Albert F. Dewey came with a rush through the stretch and got third money by being better handled than Spry. The latter suffered from interference in the stretch. Found and Nettie Regent ran well in the early stages, but were not equal to the task when the real test came.

 Winner--B. g. by The Bard--Felicia II.
 Went to post at 4:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Felix Bard was the best and plainly showed it in the running. He was interfered with on the back stretch. Skillman ran in much improved form. Alice Turner was taken the overland route. Crocket raced Prosper La Gai into submission in the first three-quarters, then quit herself. Patroclus and Glenwood can both do better.

 Winner--B. m. by Glenelg--Keepsake.
 Went to post at 4:50. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Kisme was apparently favored by the soft cushion that was on the track and ran a good race and finished strongly. Charles D., in the light of his recent bad race, ran in surprisingly improved form. Miss Thresa, favored by her light weight, did not run above her mark. Irving Mayor ran out in the stretch and this cost him third place. Wordsman had bad racing luck. The same applies to Grey Forge.

MR. WHITNEY'S STUD.

Although new in the list of breeders of thoroughbreds Mr. W. C. Whitney already has a grand array of stallions and broodmares at Headley Place near Lexington. Like the Keene's he breeds only for his own use. Of the horses on his place Turf, Field and Farm says: "The stallion stable is near the roadside, and night and day grooms are on guard there. Hamburg 6, by Hanover--Lady Reel, by Fellowcraft, cost Mr. Whitney $80,000 last spring, and he was travel worn when he arrived at the farm. His flesh was not as hard as it should have been when he left Montana for New York, and the journey told upon him. Through care and judicious feeding he regained his vigor, and now looks remarkably well. Twenty-five of Mr. Whitney's mares were bred to him, and he was allowed to go to seven outside mares. When Meddler was led out, Mr. William Russell Allen pronounced him a higher type than Hamburg. This eleven-year-old son of St. Gatien and Busybody, by Petrarch, cost Mr. Whitney $19,000, and judging from the way his colts are running he was more than worth the money. The season drawing to a close has proved him to be one of the great thoroughbred sires of the world, and Hamburg will have to do exceedingly well to equal him in reputation. As Meddler stood on the crown of the hill, with the autumn sun flooding his glossy bay coat with gold, his head erect and his thin nostrils dilated, he was the ideal racehorse and the embodiment of power, symmetry and grace. His height is 15.34, but he is so well proportioned that he does not look it. He has a sweet disposition and it is not difficult to take care of
